Exemption from Tuition Fees for an additional Degree Programme

Hochschule Reutlingen
Reutlingen University

according to section 8 and following sections of the Act on Fees in Higher Education of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (Landeshochschulgebührengesetz, LHGebG)

From the fall/winter semester 2017/18 onwards, higher education institutions in Baden-Württemberg will be charging tuition fees of EUR 650,- per semester for students of an additional degree programme. According to section 8 LHGebG, international students who already have completed a first Bachelor's or Master's Degree in the Federal Republic of Germany have to pay tuition fees.

Students enrolled before the fall/winter semester 2017/2018 can finish their studies free of charge. Tuition fees are to be paid in case of a change of the course of studies (also from bachelor to master) or university study place.

Attempting an additional degree, you are generally obliged to pay tuition fees. However, the act includes certain exemptions where students who fulfill the required criteria are not obliged to pay tuition fees. If the exception criteria apply to you and you provide the necessary documents of proof in due time, you don't have to pay tuition fees.

Please submit the request attached below filled out and with the necessary documents in simple copy in due time before the beginning of the lecture period. Please only tick what applies to you. To enroll you must bring the original or certified copies of the documents you sent in.

Please send the signed form and the necessary documents via e-mail

Information:

Electronic procedure

At the Reutlingen University, the process of collecting fees is expected to be carried out electronically. In particular, information on hearings, notifications and decisions issued in regard to the collection of fees as well as official notifications are issued electronically. The information will be sent to the e-mail address which you gave to us. Please check your e-mail account regularly.

Duration of the exception

If your residence permit effects that you are not obliged to pay tuition fees, this exception shall be valid for the duration of your residence permit. Please submit this form again, along with a notarized copy of the new residence permit, as soon as your current residence permit expires. Please also adhere to the re-registration deadlines. You may only re-register without having to pay tuition fees if your updated form and the notarized documents have been submitted and processed. We therefore ask you to please submit the form and the documents in due time before the beginning of the lecture period.

Payment of separate fees for enrollment and re-registration

Please note that even if you are not obliged to pay tuition fees for international students, you still have to pay enrollment or re-registration fees: Studierendennwerk fee, administration fee, fee for the student body representative committee (Verfasste Studierendenschaft). In certain rare cases there might be an obligation to pay "Tuition Fees for a second degree".

Reimbursement and subsequent charge

Tuition fees, which have already been paid, may be reimbursed, in particular,

- if you fulfilled the exception criteria before enrollment or re-registration but were not able to provide the necessary documents of proof,
- if you qualify for an exception according to the relevant legal regulations within one month of the lecture period beginning,
- if an Exmatriculation occurs within one month of the begin of the lecture period.

In case a fee was not charged although the obligation was given, the tuition fee can be charged subsequently.

Notarized copies

Original documents or notarized copies must be provided for the enrollment. Notarized copies have to be notarized by municipal authorities (e. g. city hall, citizens service office) or a notary. Documents notarized by other entities (e. g. AStA, health insurance provider) will not be accepted.

Translations

Translations have to be produced by a sworn translator. The translation has to be submitted to the higher education institution bearing the original stamp and signature of the translator.
